Alternative Session Option (Full Paper & Extended Abstract Submissions Only)

IACM's programming structure only allows for so many paper sessions. Being open to alternative session types assist the conference program and its authors in being able to provide a greater number of opportunities to participate in the conference. We will fully respect your option and not place you into an alternative setting that you do not opt into as a backup.

Please note that if you do not select a backup presentation option and your submission is not selected for a paper session, your paper will be declined for the conference.

Are you open to your submission being a poster presentation or data blitz/rapid fire session?:

Note: Poster presentations will shift back to a traditional poster presentation style in 2025.

☐ Poster Presentation

☐ Data Blitz / Rapid Fire

Submission Information

If you have not yet done so, please refer to the IACM Submission Guidelines prior to submitting. All submissions will be subject to blind review.
